FROSTBURG STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE

R. Bowen Hardesty, M.A., President

Frostburg (Allegany County) Telephone: Overbrook 9-6622

The State Teachers College at Frostburg was founded in 1898 as a normal school to prepare elementary teachers for Western Maryland schools; it became a full four-year college in 1934. The College offers both a two-year junior college course and a standard four-year course leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science. In addition, the College offers, in cooperation with Memorial Hospital in Cumberland, a program in nurses' training. The College was authorized by the Board of Trustees of the State Teachers Colleges on February 26, 1958, to offer graduate work leading to the degree of Master of Education. Students enrolling in the teacher education program pay no tuition, but pledge to teach two years in the public schools of Maryland following their graduation. The approximate enrollment for 1958-59 was 705.
